Dear Mrs. Manley:

I am sending you this letter as a matter of record, to say that this week I published in my paper a warning news story on the front page--backing it up with an Editorial--showing the danger that we stand in on account of bad conduct on the part of some of our people at the Ruppert Stadium. I believe that we will be able to eliminate all fighting and disturbances at our Ball Park immediately.

I called the City Hall and got an appointment to confer with Director John B. Keenan on this matter. He made a record of my suggestions, which will be passed on through the Police Department to the Judge of the Police Court Precinct in which Ruppert Stadium is located, with the understanding that whoever is arrested at our Ball Games for mis-conduct will be immediately locked up and held in jail over-night without bail until he faces the Judge the next morning, who will greet him with a severe fine. If there are any concealed weapons found on these persons who are arrested, they will be held for the Grand Jury under a heavy bond.

This is the job that I have completed for you, and the race, this week.

Very truly yours,

F. R. Clark
EDITOR and PUBLISHER
